Deloitte Cyber Threat Competition 2022

November 1-22, 2021

Deloitte is hosting the 2022 Cyber Threat Competition and we are excited to have Michigan State again as a participating school! Cash prizes are awarded to the three top performing teams. Deloitte sponsors the Cyber Threat Competition as a fun and innovative way for students of all majors to test and showcase their knowledge, and to grapple with the kinds of challenges that companies from all industries encounter every day.

Round one is from now until November 22nd which includes:

- Online business and technical knowledge-based questions
- Cyber hacking challenges for additional points
- Top scoring students receive an invitation to Round Two at Deloitte University

For more information visit Deloitte Risk & Financial Advisory Cyber Threat Competition website.

'College to CEO' Executive Speaker Series

Mondays, 7 PM via webinar

Over the school year, the College of Engineering is working with high level executives across a range of industries to speak with Spartan Engineers about their journey, mistakes made along the way, and Spartan-to-Spartan advice. Beyond a standard informational / recruitment session, this will provide a platform for you to network with figures in the industry to identify resources that will help you evolve professionally.

If you are interested, register for the sessions on Handshake to receive the meeting links for the sessions.
